I think Onsec is totally 110% agreed that "Ah Lian" has serve him well.....

Ok, back to run.....

Can't possible to miss Chris Tan run so i decide to go for the run & arrange "Ah Lian" for serve OnSec just in case....

Bukit Beruntung was the run site but Chris decide to guide us to another direction that i never been. After toll, rather than turn RIGHT, we turn "LEFT".. At T junction, turn LEFT. After passing by all apartment & houses who most of them are our Muslim friends who just celebrate their BIG Hari Raya, Chris decide to bring us into an Palm Oil estate where the silk road passing by the villages who are very surprise to see us with most of 4x4 truck pass by their houses.... That reason why the police patrol car have come over several times to investigate what are we doing over the area....Almost 3km trunk road then i reached the runsite where 70+ runner is already there to experience Chris Tan run.

After a "Year Of The Run" who set by me at UIAM last week (According to OnSec), I anticipate Chris to break my record. At 6pm, Onsec speed off with his normal speed all the way heading to OLD palm tree estate..Here the trial breakdown off the checks:
1st check: At 1.5km away was place before the tunnel who lead all of runner cross over to the other site of Highway
2nd check : At 3km, check place well on an cross trunk road where 2 false trial was identify
3rd check : At 5km, check was place at circle checks where most of the runner gather together to have BBQ
4rd check : At 6.3km, check was place top of hill where Bukit Tagar is just nearby
5rd check : At 8.1km, most of the runner enjoying the "Rambutan fruit"
6rd check : At 9.6km, the bloody CIRCLE check took us most of it time & i think the hare trying his luck to place it on top of hill where we all find difficult to track it
7rd check : At 11km, is "BACK" check where the ONON was place just after we cross back the tunnel and this check point caught most of the front runner

At 13.22km, we all reach the beer wagon and congratulate Hare Chris Tan for an excellent fine run... Front runner completed with 7.50pm...

A well deserve run from Chris...Circle was conduct 8.30pm as we been informed the gate will be lock after 9pm (but the Hare said he alrdy inform the owner of the estate. No worry la)...

Onsec asked for a volunteer butler as Sotong was shirking his duties, and Tan very kindly offered his services. Onsec then called upon the Hare Chris Tan to give RED card as warning & be prepare to set another run. Is Fine Run. (If I plan to do another run, i will set 21km rather the 14km distance). In absent of On Cash Russel... Onsec called all the 3 guest on box to on them down. Hardy Boy on box to announce the Ipoh run on Aug 15. Appointed Bomoh Young Yap stand in for Michael Lee (Next week Hare) & here are the sinner:

1st charge: Hardy, Bee, Me & Melaka Teh are busy with their smart phone

Hare Chris was last casualty to On down as placing small little sign on Tiger Beer Botol "

Beer Wagon" parking place.
