THE RUN

The Hare today was Poon Yian Lon

Poon Chai

He is a modest & quiet sort of fellow, and one of our behind-the-scene supporters , making sure Motherhash runs without a hitch. But if you should run foul of the rules, then he could easily wire a cable & stick it up your behind & flip on the switch. However, today, he was on the trail with 5 other co-hares; well- equipped with papers, beers, and fried chicken (they set runs in style). They started walking at 2 pm.

RUN SITE

Parking for this run was on open ground before the tunnel to the Shooting Range. Once through the tunnel, the trail either turns left, or turns right. This time round, we turned right, going past the Shooting Range, and then curving to the left in an anti-clockwise loop.

My group, the short cutting geriatrics (\Albert, Danial Ngiam, Kana , Dennis Khoo , Don , Plasticman , Michael), took the same loop but walking at a lower level. After 45 minutes, we descended from the hill to a stream. It is here, that we met the returning Hare & Co-Hares.

The Main Pack ran a larger outer loop, also anti-clockwise. FROP was Sotong at 7.48 pm. Sotong, as the name implies, is the size of a satay stick, with more power than weight. Following closely behind were Ah Meng, Bandaraya, and Young Yap. For a moment, rumours of a 12km run were beginning to sound ominous. But by 8.20 pm, most were back home. There were 4 checks, and much opportunity to run unimpeded. A runner's run in some ways.

THE CIRCLE

After all the usual heckling had subsided, the general consensus was that this was a good run. Not too hard, not too soft.

Sometimes it takes experience to not to up a run, but instead, strike a good balance. Given this was a hot day, like all recent days in March have been, it made good sense. But planetary alignments, and other celestial movements are causing havoc to the hash, and we are wilting under the oppressive heat. The consolation is that it will not happen again until after another 13,000 years. (so says my galactic advisor)

Hare & Co-Hares

With the sun down, and under a pleasant night sky, the circle commenced with the Hare & Co-Hares being on- downed.

The On Cash urged recalcitrants to pay up.....fast. ! (= stick)

Both Powderballs & Plasticman were next on the box, to receive their “long service” badges. (= carrot) Time has taken its toll on them (in terms of speed & agility), but both seemed determined to soldier on.

3 GUESTS

POWDERBALLS & PLASTICMAN

There were 3 guests. One was new to everything hash (far right). One was 2nd time running in the hash (1st time last week) (in the middle) Another character (far left) looked very familiar in Klang Valley hash circles. A Wanderer perhaps? All followed Hash Protocol for Motherhash Guests.

Hardy Boy was next on the box to complain that members keep asking “how much is the 80th Anniversary Run ? ” early bird rate ? Well, read his lips.....

“ Three Hundred and Fifty Ringgit “ ($350)... Pay Leong.”

READ MY LIPS..RM350.

MAKAI HOI

KAJANG SHOOTING RANGE-RUN 3773(14/3/2016)

Since the designated Bomoh (Arthur Hoi) was absent, Mike Kuan substituted for him. All the Hois were summoned up to the Circle for collective punishment. However, the only other Hoi was Maka Hoi (a Yap actually). Under Other Charges, we also had Billy No Hair, Billy Yap, the Koreans, PlayBoy amongst others, on the box.

But the highlight of the Circle must be this : The Opera announced rather proudly, that he had proposed to an un-named unmentionable. And had not received a reply . Guys.....This was Heart Breaking News for all the unmentionables who kiss the ground on which he walks !!

Opera with the On Sec? “my unmentionable love me? or love me not?”

However, the constant chats on the WhatsApp were wrecking his nerves. When he thought it was a response from the unmentionable, it was yet another Whatsapp message from the Chat Group of no importance. As of the time of writing, we still do not know the result. Watch this space. →

THE ON ON

There were 6 tables present at the Restaurant Loo Tian, located in Sg.Jolok. This is in the vicinity of the Kajang Prison where a well-known Opposition politician currently resides. The food was good, and served faster than we could eat ! ★★★★★ for service ! The cost was RM18/pax.

This was a good effort by Ah Poon Chai ; many thanks from the hash members ! Opera closed the dinner with a Swinging Low recital.

On On ! Michael Moi
